STARRED QUESTIONS

(to which oral answers were given.)

Holiday Scheme for Low Income Families.

*Q.—29. Sri H. V. KOUJALGI (Sampagaon I).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

the holiday schemes for the low-income families undertaken by the Government?

A.—Sri B. D. JATTI (Chief Minister).—

There is no such scheme envisaged by the Government.

Sri H. V. KOUJALGI.—May I know whether the Government propose to take up such a scheme?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—There is no such scheme in Government and Government is not proposing to take up such schemes. I shall explain what is being done now. 90 per cent of the actual fares of Government servants and their families is borne by Government. In the case of those officials whose homes are 250 miles from headquarters this concession is available to them once in two years and the officers drawing salaries less than Rs. 300 will be considered as belonging to low income group families.

Admission of failed Intermediate Students to Degree Course.

*Q.—41. Sri V. SRINIVAS SHETTY (Coondapur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether it is a fact that the University of Mysore has allowed the failed students of the Intermediate class of the said University obtaining more than 20 per cent of marks in the aggregate to join the I year of B.A. or B.Sc. classes of the University;

(b) whether it is a fact that the said concession has been denied to the students of the Madras University from South Kanara and Kollegal in similar circumstances and, if so, for what reasons;

(c) whether it is a fact that students who have passed the Intermediate Examination of the Mysore and Karnataka Universities are allowed to join the II year of B.A. and B.Sc. classes of the said Universities;

(d) whether the same facility is extended to the students of the erstwhile Madras University from South Kanara and Kollegal and, if not, why?

A.—Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI (Minister for Education).—

(a) The candidates securing not less than 20 per cent of marks in Parts I and II and 20 per cent of marks in each subject under Part III (with an aggregate of 25 per cent in the Group) have been declared eligible for admission to the First Year of the appropriate Three-Year Degree Course B.A., B.Sc., or B.Com.

(b) Yes: No provision has been made in the regulations of the Madras University for the benefit of failed Intermediate students to join the first year of the Three-Year Degree Course. The Madras University conducts examinations for the benefit of failed Intermediate students till 1961.

(c) Yes.

(d) Yes.

Sri V. SRINIVAS SHETTY.—With reference to the answer to clause (d) am I to understand that the students
